Young Learners (Ages 13 - 17)

Our Young Learner Programme for students aged 13–17 combines high-quality English language tuition with an exciting international experience in a safe and supportive environment. Whether you are looking for an English course for your teenager, a complete package including accommodation and activities, or a tailor-made group programme, IELS offers a range of options to suit every need. Our programme strikes the perfect balance between structured learning and unforgettable experiences, allowing students to improve their English while making friends from around the world.

Students practise English naturally through activities, excursions and everyday interactions with their international peers. The experience encourages them to become more confident, independent and comfortable communicating in English while discovering Malta and creating lasting memories. With dedicated staff providing constant care and support throughout their stay, students enjoy an immersive multinational experience where serious study goes hand in hand with great fun.

Why choose IELS Young Learner Programme?
