

Offering Excellent Quality At Exceptional Value

Everyday cost

An international student in Ireland can expect to spend approximately €10,000 to €14,000 per year on living costs, depending on location and lifestyle. Here's a detailed breakdown of typical monthly expenses:

Total Estimated Living Costs (Annual)

Location	Estimated Annual Cost
Dublin	€12,000 – €14,000
Other Irish cities	€10,000 – €12,000

Accommodation

Accommodation	Cost
OnCampus accommodation	From €310 per person/per week
Student residence (on university campus)	€600–€1,000/month
Student residence (off-Campus) accommodation	€200 – €400 per week (private room), €110 – €200 (shared room)

International Student Budget

Category	Monthly (€)	Annual (€)	Notes
Food & Groceries	€300	€3,600	Cooking at home, occasional meals out
Transport	€50–€100	€600–€1,200	Student Leap Card (unlimited travel in city)
Utilities	€50–€100	€600–€1,200	Electricity, heating, waste
Internet & Phone	€30–€50	€360–€600	Broadband + mobile plan
Health Insurance	-	€500	Mandatory for visa (annual plan)

Sample monthly and annual budget template tailored for an international student in Dublin, which is typically the most expensive city in Ireland. You can adjust these figures based on your lifestyle or if you're living in a more affordable city like Cork, Galway, or Limerick.

90%

of graduates are in work or further study 9 months after graduation.

HESA

90%

of postgraduate are in work or further study 9 months after graduation.

HESA

Networking Opportunities:

Universities and Higher Education Institutions provides a platform for building a professional network that can be valuable for future career advancement.

Skills Development:

Universities and Higher Education Institutions education fosters essential skills like critical thinking, problem-solving, communication, and research, which are highly valued by employers.

Salaries by sector

Information and Communication
Technology ICT
€45,197

Engineering Manufacturing and Construction
€42,761

Health and Welfare
€38,728

More scholarship info

Scan me

€31,362 average
undergraduate salary

GradIreland

€34,779 average
postgraduate salary

Early Careers Employer Survey 2024

Accommodation In Ireland

We offer a range of student housing options, including homestays near Maynooth and Tralee. Scan the QR code to explore available places to live.

Stay in the heart of Dublin and make the most of your campus experience at Ardcairn House. The residence is located in a vibrant neighbourhood with plenty of shops, restaurants, green spaces and great transport connections.

This stylish residence offers everything you need to live the student life to the fullest, with individual and group study areas, a music room, a fully equipped on-site gym, a cinema room, a games lounge to have fun with your mates after a full day of classes, and even a bowling alley.

To find out more and to book your accommodation visit: booking.oncampus.global

Facilities include:

- Central Heating
- Cinema Room
- Common Room
- Games Room
- Garden
- Gym
- Outdoor Area
- Self Catered
- Study Area
- Study Room
- TV

From €310 per person per week

