Nau mai ki Toi Ohomai
Welcome to Toi Ohomai

Tēnā koutou katoa / Greetings to you all. It is my pleasure to introduce and welcome you to Toi Ohomai Institute of Technology.

Throughout New Zealand's Bay of Plenty and South Waikato regions, Toi Ohomai offers a diverse range of study options to suit learners at every stage of their educational journey. Our institute's name, Toi Ohomai, reflects our vision to aim high and achieve great heights through learning.

Each year, more than 9,000 ākonga / students choose to study or train with us. Our two main campuses in Rotorua and Tauranga allow students to learn and live near some of New Zealand's best beaches, lakes, mountains and thermal wonders. Our well-resourced and inclusive learning environments extend to our smaller education delivery sites in Taupō, Tokoroa and Whakatāne.

Toi Ohomai welcomes international students from more than 25 countries annually. We genuinely value and respect diverse cultures and perspectives, celebrating the vibrancy this brings to our student community and campuses.

As one of New Zealand's largest government-owned Institutes of Technology and Polytechnics (ITPs), we are proud to uphold our obligations under Te Tiriti o Waitangi / The Treaty of Waitangi - New Zealand's founding document. We ensure student success comes first by delivering high-quality, career-focused qualifications.

Students can choose from study areas in business, creative arts, construction, engineering, English language, hospitality, healthcare, information technology, nursing, tourism, science, supply chain management and much more.

Whether you are taking your first steps into tertiary education, looking to upskill through a certificate or diploma, or seeking to advance your career through graduate or postgraduate study, we look forward to welcoming you to the Toi Ohomai whānau/family. Here, you will develop new skills and knowledge, make new friends and connect with industry, as you take the next steps in your education journey.

Our graduates are highly sought after and, through the skills and knowledge they gain, have greater opportunities to build productive, rewarding, and well-paid careers. This potential for success is often life-changing, positively impacting not only our ākonga/students but also their whānau/families, both locally and internationally.

Education is a life-changing experience in which you will not only gain knowledge and skills but also learn to be courageous, hopeful, and ready for the future.

Join us at Toi Ohomai. We are confident you will find something here to inspire you, and we will support and guide you as you grow, learn, and shape your own vocational path forward.

Ngā mihi nui

Dr Pim Borren
Chief Executive

Why study in New Zealand?

Gain work skills and qualifications in New Zealand to prepare you for the future.

Vocational education in New Zealand

Learning with us will give you relevant work skills, real-world experience and globally recognised qualifications.

Focused on the future

Study in New Zealand and you'll gain qualifications that are recognised and respected around the world. New Zealand is among the TOP 3 safest countries in the world, according to the Global Peace Index.

Real-world skills

You'll increase your employability by gaining relevant skills and hands-on experience in your industry. Employers help to create our courses and programmes, so you can be confident you're getting the right skills for the right jobs.

Flexible learning

Learning in New Zealand takes place at work as well as on campus and online. Your studies may include internships, work placements and industry projects. You'll gain experience in your industry, make contacts, and be ready to work as soon as you graduate.

Welcoming and supportive

One of New Zealand's most important values is manaakitanga - a Māori word meaning hospitality and kindness. You'll be given a warm welcome and the support you need to achieve your goals.

Ready for work

Working while you study

If you have a student visa, you may be able to work for up to 25 hours a week during the term and full-time during holidays.

Working after studying

You may be able to apply for a visa to work for up to three years in New Zealand after you graduate, depending on what you study and where you study.

Jobs in high demand

Discover which job skills are currently in high demand in the New Zealand job market. You may also wish to explore the Green List roles on the Immigration New Zealand (INZ) website.

How to apply

We welcome applications at any time of the year. We recommend that you apply at least two months before the start date of the programme you are interested in.

There are two ways you can apply to study with Toi Ohomai:

Online/Post

Download the International Student Application Form from the Toi Ohomai website. You can email or post your completed application and the required documents to us.

Agent

Our institute has many agents around the world who are authorised to act on our behalf. These approved agents will have a contract signed by us; please ask to see this. Agents can advise you about the programmes we offer, help you enrol, and help you to obtain your student visa.

Our commitment to pastoral care

The safety and wellbeing of all our learners is important to us. We have a wide range of support systems, services and resources available to ensure our international students are cared for and supported during their time with us.

We're required by law to meet New Zealand's International and Domestic Pastoral Care Code, (the Code) which applies to all registered tertiary providers across the country. This is administered and monitored by the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA).

An updated Code came into effect in January 2022 which mandates one set of clear rules and expectations for embedding safety and wellbeing into systems and day-to-day practices – tailored to learners' needs.

Here's a summary of the Code as it relates to international students.

Tertiary providers should ensure international students:

- are protected and supported from when they leave their home country, to when they finish their education journey
- are aware of their rights and protections
- feel safe and happy while studying in New Zealand
- are provided correct information through agents, who act professionally
- are aware of the terms and conditions of their enrolment.

View and download the Code here: https://www2.nzqa.govt.nz/tertiary/the-code/the-code-for-learners/

Criteria that must be applied: The listed outcomes represent the minimum scores or grades for each test or qualification that qualify a student for enrolment at each programme level.

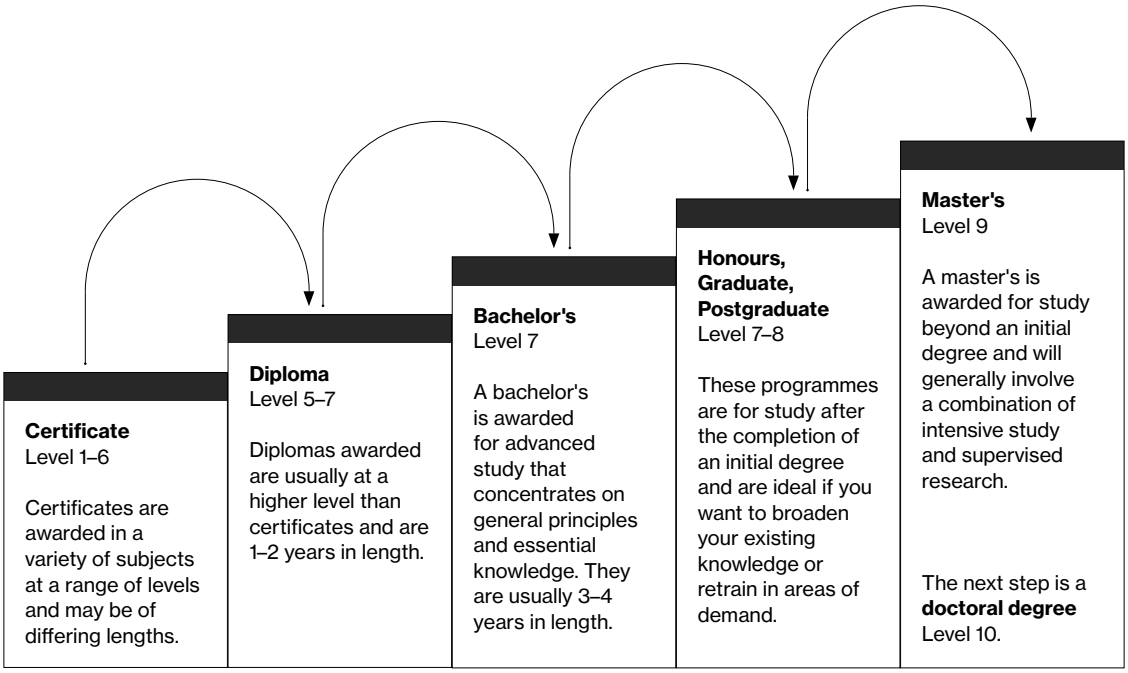

- Students with higher scores or grades than required for a particular programme level may still enrol at that level.
- Where the entry requirements for a programme are for a higher English proficiency outcome than is listed in the relevant row of the Table for the programme level in which the student is being enrolled, the student must meet that higher level.
- All test scores must be from a single report except:
- TOEFL iBT where the test scores must be from a single report for a single test date, and the My Best Scores option must not be used.
- LanguageCert where the test scores must be from a single report for Written (LRW) and a separate individual report for Spoken (S).

Student Testimonials

Effie will soon complete her Master of Teaching Early Childhood Education. After settling in New Zealand in 2024, she arranged housing before her husband and daughter joined her from China.

During Effie's teaching practicum at an early childhood centre, she was offered ongoing work and is now employed there part-time. Her husband is working and their child attends a local school. Effie says her family has greatly enjoyed the work–life balance and education system in New Zealand. In China, Effie worked as an English teacher, and she feels that transitioning into early childhood education was the right pathway for her.

Effie Zhang, China

Nicole chose to study a Master of Management with a hospitality endorsement in Rotorua because of the city's strong hospitality and tourism industry. Initially, she planned to focus only on her studies, but after seeing many classmates working part-time, she's now working alongside her studies too.

Nicole appreciates how workplaces in New Zealand value personality and mindset, alongside performance. She says younger people can become managers if they have the ability and skills. Through her studies Nicole has gained a better understanding of business and management principles, and she often reflects on lessons she learned running her own café and working in HR in the Philippines.

Nicole Magango, Philippines

Abhi still remembers his first days in New Zealand, walking around town and handing out his CV. He quickly secured a part-time job and now works at a local supermarket.

"I like the work-life balance in New Zealand. I attend classes two days a week and while there's quite a lot of homework, my manager is flexible with my work schedule when I need to focus on my study."

Abhi is studying the New Zealand Diploma in Engineering (Civil Engineering strand). With a strong interest in maths and physics, he has found the learning journey both enjoyable and rewarding.

Abhi Mishra, Nepal

Jamie Brown moved from the United States to New Zealand with her family. She was seeking a slower pace of life, better work-life balance, and a safe environment close to nature.

Jamie is studying the Master of Applied Professional Studies (Mentoring and Leadership strand), which complements her background in HR. She has secured a part-time role as an e-learning assistant.

Jamie found the study environment at Toi Ohomai more collaborative than what she was used to back home. "Here, students are encouraged to share ideas and research with one another. While this required some adjustment, I really appreciate the supportive and interactive approach."

Jamie Brown, USA

Student Testimonials

Originally from Germany, Hannah first came to New Zealand as a high school exchange student before deciding to continue her tertiary studies here.

Studying the New Zealand Diploma in Architectural Technology, Hannah enjoys the practical learning style and values that many tutors come directly from industry backgrounds. She chose to study at Toi Ohomai because she preferred a shorter, more hands-on programme that would help her enter the workforce sooner. While studying in English can sometimes be challenging, she is performing strongly academically.

After gaining industry experience, Hannah hopes to apply for residency, saying “New Zealand feels like my second home.”

Hannah Trostel, Germany

Dhillon chose to study the Bachelor of Applied Management at Toi Ohomai because of its strong focus on practical, industry-connected learning. Coming from a family metal forging and manufacturing business in India, he is interested in business operations and plans to help expand the family business in the future.

Since arriving in New Zealand, Dhillon has adapted well to student life and values the supportive learning environment and access to tutors and learning facilitators at Toi Ohomai. He works part-time at Z Energy, gaining local experience while balancing academic commitments. He says studying in abroad has helped him build independence and confidence

Karanveersingh Dhillon, India

Graduate Testimonials

Hannah arrived in New Zealand on a working holiday visa and was immediately drawn to the country's natural environment and welcoming people. She later completed a Bachelor of Creative Industries (Graphic Design), where she developed her creative practice and built connections across New Zealand's arts community.

While studying, Hannah co-founded Tauranga Zinefest. What began in 2016 as a grassroots initiative has grown into a free annual event celebrating independent publishing and creative storytelling, giving kiwi creatives a space to share their work and connect. Still in Tauranga, Hannah now works as a Manager at Tauranga Art Gallery.

Hannah Wynn, Scotland

Arya came to New Zealand as a single mother to study the Master of Applied Professional Studies (Adult Teaching). With a background in computer applications and teaching, she chose the programme because of its focus on tertiary education, curriculum design and adult teaching.

Arya has balanced study, work, and family responsibilities while building a career in education. She taught at Tarawera High School before becoming a teaching assistant at Toi Ohomai, supporting many international students. As an active member of the multicultural and Indian communities, Arya says New Zealand has challenged her in many ways but has also helped her grow personally and professionally.

Arya Prithviraj, India

Settling in Auckland, Ken chose to move to New Zealand because of the peaceful lifestyle. He quickly became passionate about helping other Vietnamese families to make the move to New Zealand and enrolled in the Graduate Diploma in New Zealand Immigration Advice at Toi Ohomai to further his expertise. Through his online studies, Ken gained valuable knowledge of New Zealand's immigration system and developed the skills needed to support people through the migration process. He valued the practical nature of the programme and the opportunity to learn from industry professionals. Ken says he is grateful for the opportunities New Zealand has given his family.

Ken Nguyen, Vietnam

Shonit came to New Zealand to study Information Technology. He quickly became actively involved in the local community, through cricket and cultural networks. In 2019, a conversation with a police officer inspired him to consider a career change and he completed the New Zealand Certificate in Study and Employment Pathways (Level 3), Police and Defence Forces Pathway at Toi Ohomai.

He applied to join the New Zealand Police, and after successfully completing the recruitment and training process, he now works as an Ethnic Liaison Officer and Police Negotiator. Shonit's role includes community engagement, specialist response work, and contributing to safety and trust between police and ethnic communities.

Shonit Chandra, India

Biculturalism

Toi Ohomai Institute of Technology is strongly focused on biculturalism, recognising and celebrating our country's Māori and non-Māori heritage and culture. Many names, practices, teachings and even some of our buildings reflect our Māori history. You will learn about, and also participate in, various Māori cultural practices during your studies here.

Tangatarua - the name of the marae (meeting grounds) at Mokoia Campus - translates to "two peoples".

Pomare is the wharenui (meeting house) at Windermere Campus. It is named after a Māori ancestor from the local area.

Pōhiri

All new students are formally welcomed to Toi Ohomai with a pōhiri (traditional Māori ceremony) at the marae or wharenui on campus.

Graduation

Our formal graduation events are a great way to celebrate your success, with support from your family and friends.

Preparation and arrival in New Zealand

We look forward to your arrival and assisting you to ensure an enjoyable and successful stay. We have compiled the following information to help you prepare for your trip.

Pre-departure

To prepare for your new life in New Zealand, please read all of the information in the Locations/About New Zealand section of our website. Topics include immigration and visa information, accommodation, important policies, insurance, and detailed arrival information.

If you have any questions, please contact the International Centre via email on

Arriving in New Zealand

If requested in advance, Toi Ohomai can arrange to have you picked up from Auckland Airport.

Toi Ohomai staff will also meet you at your orientation day and will provide all the information you will need to begin your study and settle in to campus life in Rotorua or Tauranga.

Money

- Travel with only a small amount of cash
- Bring a bank card or travel card to cover your initial expenses
- Open a New Zealand bank account as soon as possible after your arrival.

Immigration and student visas

If you are going to study in New Zealand for more than 12 weeks, you will need to apply for a student visa. Visit immigration.govt.nz for more information.

Medical and travel insurance

International students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while in New Zealand, and this usually costs no more than $700 per academic year.

Uni-Care is our preferred insurance provider. It is important to understand the inclusions stated in the New Zealand Student Plan. Visit for more information.

Eligibility for public health services

Most international students are not entitled to subsidised health services. If you receive medical treatment while in New Zealand, you may be required to pay the full cost of that treatment. More details are available through the Ministry of Health at health.govt.nz.

Accident insurance

The Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) provides accident insurance for all temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be required to pay for some or all other medical and related costs. More details are available at acc.co.nz.

Employment

These websites can be helpful in finding employment while in New Zealand:

- seek.co.nz
- trademe.co.nz
- sjs.co.nz (Student Job Search).

Accommodation

Toi Ohomai can help arrange accommodation while you are here for your studies. For all the latest information, visit the Accommodation page on our website, under the Student Services tab.

Homestay

We recommend living in a homestay option, especially if you are studying English and want to be able to practise your English with your host family. The family environment can also ease the adjustment of living in a new country as you experience different food, language and customs. We recommend you commit to staying at least three months with your homestay family while you adjust to life in Rotorua or Tauranga and while you and your homestay family get used to each other.

The homestay fee includes your own room, power, gas, internet, access to kitchen, bathroom and laundry.

The weekly homestay fee is NZ$310 including food, or $250 without food. Extra charges apply if you are under 18 years old.

Flatting (sharing a house)

If you plan to live in a rented house or apartment with one or more people, we call that “flatting”. You and your flatmates will be responsible for finding your own furniture, bedding, cooking utensils and other household necessities. You can find all of these new items at shops in town or, to keep costs down, you can buy from second-hand shops or online (e.g. Trade Me).

You will need to share the cost of power and other bills, cook your meals, do your own laundry and your share of household cleaning, and abide by the rental agreement.

It can take some time to find a flat to rent and you may need to stay in temporary accommodation for the first month after arriving in New Zealand. This is where short-term shared accommodation would be desirable.

Basic expenses

- Rents for students in our area range from NZD$200-$300 per week; this includes power and water.
- Groceries for one person costs approximately NZD$100-$130 per week.
- Allow for general expenses of NZD$50-$120 per week.

These figures are approximate and may vary.

Selwyn Street Studios

The University of Waikato also has accommodation available to Toi Ohomai international students based in Tauranga at their new complex on Selwyn Street.

The Selwyn Street complex consists of 91 studio rooms, each with an ensuite bathroom. Each room is fully furnished with a bed, desk, chair, wardrobe and mini fridge. Shared social spaces on every floor provide stunning views across the harbour, and larger communal areas are located on the ground floor and WiFi is included.

Accommodation for families

Most of the accommodation providers Toi Ohomai works with are set up to host individual students only; few can accept a couple.

If you plan to bring your family, we strongly recommend that you come to New Zealand on your own first and arrive a couple of weeks before our orientation programme. Arriving early will give you time to look for long-term family accommodation in the private housing market.

If your family comes with you, you may need to stay in a hotel or motel while you try to find long-term accommodation. This can be very expensive.
