SUMMER WILL NEVER
BE THE
SAME AGAIN

inspired.
SUMMER CAMPS 2026

Wake up to wonder.

Do what sets your soul on fire.

Repeat until you never want it to end.

This is more than just camp. It's your summer unlocked. Whether you're building robots, painting murals, coding your first game, or exploring the wild, every day is designed around what makes you come alive.

No bells. No boredom. Just passion, play, and the freedom to be wildly, fully you in some of the best locations across the globe.

What it means for your child to join an Inspired Summer Camp

Whether your child is with us full-time or for a few weeks over the summer, they will enjoy a new standard in private education with a dedication to excellence permeating every aspect of the experience.

This isn't summer school. It's a playground for questions. Every day is designed to spark curiosity, explore passions, and discover new perspectives; from robotics to performing arts, from leadership to the great outdoors, from Elite sports coaching to STEAM discoveries.

They can do more of what they love in 9 of the best locations around the world. Wherever they join us, summer will never be the same again, with students leaving full of lifelong memories, self-confidence, and a love for learning.
