THE REGISTRATION FEE

A registration fee is required for all courses. It is not required for the English camps. The amount of the Registration Fee depends on your age on the day you start your course:

- If you are aged 18 years or more: £95.00
- If you are aged 16 or 17 years: £195.00

The reason for this difference is the additional welfare measures we have in place for students who are under 18 years of age and who are not, therefore, legally adults. Please see our brochure for details.

AIRPORT TRANSFERS

If you wish us to arrange taxi transportation from your airport of arrival in London to your accommodation in Cambridge, to the total fees, add:

London Heathrow	£230.00
London Gatwick	£275.00
London Stansted	£145.00
London Luton	£175.00

For students aged under 18, we must know your travel arrangements in advance. If you wish us to arrange transportation, you must send us your flight details at least 7 days before you arrive.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS for all students

The 2027 dates & fees leaflet, brochure & current website supersede all previous versions. We undertake to offer the courses & services described within.

These Terms and Conditions apply to the student, where the student is under 18, to the student's parent or legal guardian. This applies whether you have booked directly with Studio Cambridge or through an ETO, agent or other representative.

The words "you" and "your" therefore refer to the student and, where appropriate, the student's parent or legal guardian.

The text in black in these Terms and Conditions refers to all students. Text in green is for students applying for or taking English Language courses for Adults in Cambridge. Text in blue is for students applying for or taking an English Camp for Young Learners.

Your application

1. Once your application has been received and we have confirmed the enrolment, a binding contract exists between you and Studio Cambridge. Once a contract exists, all fees are due for the full period of your course, subject to these Terms and Conditions.
2. The person signing the application takes responsibility for paying all required fees.
3. Fees must be received by Studio Cambridge no less than 28 days before the start of your course. Failure to comply with our payment terms may result in your enrolment being cancelled.
4. If we are unable to accept your application for enrolment, we will offer you an alternative course or course start date where possible. If the alternative is not acceptable to you, we will refund all fees paid for the affected booking.
5. We reserve the right not to accept an application for enrolment of any student at any stage of the application or booking process. If your application is declined, all fees received will be refunded in full. We are not normally required to give reasons for declining an application, except for when required to do so by law.

Payment

6. A place on a course or camp at Studio Cambridge is guaranteed once we have received the payment required under your booking arrangements and have confirmed your enrolment.
7. We send all documentation by email. If you require documents to be posted, there will be an additional charge for postage.
8. Studio Cambridge complies with applicable UK requirements relating to payments. Any restrictions on cash payments will be communicated to you where applicable.
9. Payments may be made in instalments if arranged in advance with Studio Cambridge.
10. You must pay any bank charges incurred in making the payment to the school.
11. Any change to your booking which results in an additional charge must be paid for before the change is implemented.

Applicants with disabilities and additional needs

12. Studio Cambridge has limited facilities for students with some disabilities but will make adjustments where appropriate and reasonably possible.

Our main school is located in historic buildings, including areas without lifts and courses, camps, accommodation and activities take place at different premises with varying degrees of accessibility.

If you have a disability, medical condition, learning difficulty, special educational need or other requirement which may affect your participation, please inform us before enrolment. We will be happy to advise on the suitability of each of our programmes and discuss reasonable adjustments where appropriate.

Visas

13. If you come from a country whose nationals require a visa or other immigration permission to enter or study in the United Kingdom, it is your responsibility to obtain the correct visa or immigration status.

You must comply with the conditions of your visa or immigration permission.

If we find that you do not have appropriate immigration permission to study on your course, we may be required to terminate your course immediately and you may have to return to your country. In this case tuition and registration fees are non-refundable.

14. On receipt of your application and the deposit or full fees, we will confirm receipt of the application and, where appropriate, reserve a place for you. Where a visa is required, the booking will be subject to you obtaining the appropriate visa.
15. On request, we will give you a letter confirming that your application has been received. This can be used to support your application for a visa.
16. If your application for a visa is unsuccessful, we will refund all monies paid on receipt of a copy of the letter of refusal from the British authorities (British Consulate or Visa Section of a British Embassy). If an appeal process is available to you, we will only make the refund when the appeal has been unsuccessful.

Your course

17. All students are expected to complete the course in which they have enrolled and to attend all classes. Where required by applicable immigration rules, we may report attendance or other relevant information to UK Visas and Immigration or other appropriate authority.
18. By enrolling you on a Studio Cambridge course, you accept responsibility (or your parents/guardians grant permission) to attend any activities organised by the school or arranged by the school through third parties (for excursions). In some circumstances, we may also request a consent form.
19. In rare circumstances the stated maximum class size might be exceeded. If this does happen, it will only be by one person and for a very limited period.
20. We rely on the accuracy of applications for enrolment when assigning students to courses & accommodation. In very rare circumstances, students outside the published age range of our camps may be accepted at our discretion or if they form part of an accompanied group. Where this happens, we will assess their suitability for the course.
21. All courses are offered subject to demand and operational requirements. We reserve the right to cancel or make reasonable changes to an advertised course where necessary. If we cancel a course, we will make every reasonable effort to offer you an alternative course or course start date. If you do not wish to accept the alternative course offered, we will refund all fees paid for the affected course or services. We will not be liable for losses or additional expenses relating to travel or other arrangements booked independently.
22. If your English level is not suitable for the course you have booked, we reserve the right to move you onto a different course or to refuse you admission to the school.
23. In the rare circumstance that there are not enough students to form a class at your appropriate English level, (e.g. if you are a beginner), we reserve the right to offer you private lessons in lieu of group lessons until you have reached the appropriate level where group classes are available. There will be no additional charge, but the number of private lessons will be provided at a ratio of 1 private lesson for every 3 group lessons.
24. We reserve the right to change teachers at any time during your course.
25. Studio Cambridge may make reasonable changes to teachers, classrooms, timetables, facilities, accommodation or activities where necessary for operational, safety, legal or other legitimate reasons. We will notify you of any material change as soon as reasonably practicable. We will not increase the agreed price of a service already booked unless you request an additional service, agree to the additional charge or the increase is otherwise permitted by law.
26. Classes usually take place in our main school, summer campus & summer camp buildings. Sometimes additional premises located near the school or summer camps are used. Studio Cambridge reserves the right to move classes between rooms & premises as appropriate.
27. If Studio Cambridge is required to close temporarily because of a public-health emergency, government requirement or other circumstance outside of our reasonable control, we will consider reasonable alternatives, which may include moving lessons online. We will take reasonable steps to minimise disruption and keep you informed.

Resolution of disputes

28. If you are dissatisfied with your course or any aspect of the services offered by Studio Cambridge, you must bring that dissatisfaction to the attention of the Director of Studies or Course Director as soon as possible. This gives us the best opportunity to investigate the issue and resolve it while you are still attending the course.
29. Once a complaint has been brought to our attention, we will make every reasonable effort to investigate and resolve the issue promptly. Where possible, we aim to provide an initial response within 24 working hours. We may ask you to provide the complaint in writing and provide any relevant information or evidence needed to investigate it.
30. If you are still unhappy with the response, you may ask for the matter to be referred to a Studio Cambridge Director.
31. Our complaints procedure does not affect your statutory rights.

Attendance

32. We are a serious academic institution and expect every student to be on time, attend every lesson and complete their homework. We keep attendance registers and latecomers may not be allowed into class. Students normally receive a leaving certificate if class attendance has been 80% or more.
33. If you miss a lesson, for any reason, we cannot give a refund or allow you to take the lesson at another time. In the case of absence due to sickness of up to 7 days, students must complete a self-certification sickness form on their return. For longer periods of sickness, students may be required to provide medical evidence.
34. Absence from classes for 10 consecutive days or more, or repeated absence without authorisation (e.g. 1 or 2 days per week), will be reported to the UK Visas and Immigration authorities (for visa nationals), and/or to sponsors (for sponsored students).

Conduct

35. The school expects students to adhere to the standards and rules set out in our "Student Code of Conduct" and any applicable health, safety and safeguarding requirements. Students must behave reasonably and respectfully towards other students, school staff, homestay hosts, our facility providers, & members of the public. We expect students to respect cultural, racial & religious differences.
36. We expect students to behave reasonably and responsibly online (including using any form of messaging or social media) and follow the school's guidelines on internet use – including not downloading or sharing any illegal or inappropriate material.
37. In the event of misconduct or unsatisfactory attendance or work, we reserve the right to refuse admission to any student or to dismiss any student from school or accommodation without refund of tuition fees Any extra costs involved will be the responsibility of the student, parents or sponsor.
38. If a student is required to leave to leave the course, we may inform appropriate authorities, sponsors, parents or guardians where appropriate or legally required.
39. We reserve the right to withhold a certificate of attendance or end of course report in the event of misconduct or unsatisfactory attendance.

Accommodation and transfers

40. All accommodation payments must be made through Studio Cambridge.
41. If you book your own accommodation, you must give your accommodation address & a contact telephone number to us before you come.
42. If you leave your course early for any reason, you will be asked to leave your accommodation.
43. Refunds for all accommodation options will only be made for full calendar weeks (Sunday to Saturday).
44. If you only book accommodation for part of your stay & you decide to extend, we cannot guarantee that you will be able to stay in the same accommodation.
45. We reserve the right to change your accommodation at short notice before you arrive or once you are here due to death, illness, work commitments, safeguarding concerns or other unexpected situations. We guarantee to provide accommodation for the period you have booked, but not necessarily with the same homestay or in the same category of accommodation for the whole period.
46. If you have a problem with your accommodation we will attempt to resolve it as soon as possible. You may ask to change accommodation up to a maximum of 3 times. After this we reserve the right not to offer you alternative accommodation. This limit does not apply where a change is reasonably required because the accommodation is unsafe, materially different from that booked or otherwise fails to meet agreed standards.
47. Any student who behaves in an unacceptable or unsafe manner will be asked to leave their accommodation, with no guarantee that we will be able to find alternative accommodation.
48. Residential accommodation is booked on a weekly basis. If your homestay accommodation requirements involve extra days, you will be charged a daily rate for up to 3 days. For 4 or more extra days you will be charged at the full weekly rate.
49. On arrival, if you have booked residential accommodation, you will be asked to sign a contract and follow the terms and conditions of that contract. Failure to do so means you will be asked to leave the accommodation, and no refund will be given.
50. Students are financially responsible for any damage they cause deliberately or through unreasonable or careless behaviour to homestay or residential accommodation during their stay.
51. Guests are not permitted to stay in homestay or residences without prior arrangement with Studio Cambridge.
52. Arrival at your accommodation is expected to be scheduled between 12:00 and 20:00. However, we cannot guarantee access to rooms until 18:00. Late accommodation arrivals after 20:00 will incur an extra fee.
53. Students are responsible for double-checking the transfer arrangements for their flights. Neither Studio Cambridge nor the contracted transportation company accept liability if a student misses a flight due to problems with transfer arrangements caused by incorrect information provided or changes to travel arrangements which have not been notified to us.
54. Transfer fees include 1 suitcase &1 carry-on bag per passenger. Additional luggage is available on request for an extra fee and must be notified in advance of travelling.
55. Students under the age of 16 using our transfer service will be assisted with check-in at the airport. Students aged 16+ are expected to check themselves in. Assisted check-in for students aged 16+ is available on request for an additional fee.
56. For camp courses, arrival flights must be scheduled to land by 18:00 and departure flights must be scheduled to take off by 20:00 at the latest.

Liability

57. Studio Cambridge is responsible for providing the services included in your booking. We are not responsible for services arranged independently by you or another organisation.
58. We do not accept liability in the case of illness, accident, or loss/damage to personal items of property during our courses and camps, while on premises used by Studio, or in accommodation or transport booked through us, except where caused by our negligence or breach of contract. We do not accept liability for the damage of any clothing washed on Studio premises.
59. We do not accept liability for losses or additional expenses you might have to pay because of cancellation or delays to your travel services.
60. Students are responsible for the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing property they damage deliberately or through unreasonable or careless behaviour at school, camp, accommodation or at any other facilities used during the Studio Cambridge programme.
61. Studio Cambridge will not be liable for failure or delay in providing a service where this is caused by circumstances outside our reasonable control. These may include severe weather, natural disasters, war, terrorism, civil unrest, government restrictions, industrial disputes, widespread utility or communication failures, public-health emergencies or other circumstances which could not have reasonably been prevented.

We will take reasonable steps to minimise the impact and will keep you informed. Where a service cannot be provided, we will consider reasonable alternatives.

62. In the event of an outbreak of an infectious disease or other public-health emergency, all students and parents/guardians must comply with reasonable quarantine, health and safety and safeguarding requirements imposed by government agencies and/or Studio Cambridge.

Holiday

63. With a minimum of 1 weeks' notice and with the agreement of the Director of Studies, students who have been studying for 12 weeks or longer may take a 1-week holiday, for every 12 weeks of their studies. Such holidays may only be taken if they begin and end on weekends.
64. Subject to your accommodation provider's agreement, you may return to and leave your belongings in your accommodation during your holiday. In this case, a fee will be charged.

Personal Information and media

65. Studio Cambridge processes personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy & applicable data protection legislation.
66. Studio-organised activities and classes (and their participants) must not be filmed or recorded in any way, without the explicit permission of other participants and a Studio Cambridge Manager.
67. We may use film or still photographs of students for promotional purposes or for our marketing. We will only use identifiable images where the appropriate consent has been obtained. Consent for promotional use may be withdrawn for future use by contacting the school.
68. We keep our students' personal information in electronic and paper format where necessary. Relevant personal information may be passed to other providers where necessary to provide the services included in your booking. Studio Cambridge will process and share personal information in accordance with its Privacy Policy and applicable data protection legislation.
69. Under UK law we are required to give information to UK Visas & Immigration authorities if requested to do so.
70. In order to fulfil our obligations to you and to comply with applicable legal or immigration requirements, we may ask to see & copy your passport (and visa if applicable). We may also request your mobile phone number & emergency contact details. You must agree to provide these details & keep them up to date.
71. Students or parents/guardians must inform us at the time of application of any relevant medical information, allergies, dietary requirements, disabilities or other needs that could affect the student's health, safety or participation. This information must be kept up to date.

For students taking an English Course for Adults

Under 18s on adult courses

72. For students aged under 18 attending our "English Courses for adults", Studio Cambridge does not provide supervision outside of lessons and activities organised as part of the students' programme. Parents and guardians should ensure that they understand the level of supervision provided before booking.
73. Under 18s are required to read our 'Notes to parents and guardians of under 18s'. Additional medical, emergency contact, safeguarding or consent forms may be required.

Cancellation of your application

74. If we receive cancellation of your course, in writing, before the course starts, you will be responsible for paying the deposit of £300.00.
75. If we do not receive your cancellation in writing, or do so after the course in which you are enrolled has started, your cancellation will be treated as "termination" of the course. The conditions pertaining to termination are given below.

Termination of your course or accommodation

76. If you wish to withdraw from your course (the lessons) once it has started, you must give 28 days' written notice or make payment of Tuition fees in lieu of notice. A refund of 50% will then be made of the Tuition fees for the unused portion of the course in excess of the 28 days' notice period.
77. If you wish to withdraw from your accommodation, it will be kept available, and must be paid, until the Saturday of the week after you give us notice. A refund will then be made of 100% of the Accommodation fees remaining from that Saturday onward.
78. Insurance is not included in our fees. We recommend that you arrange your own insurance to cover you for cancellation or withdrawal from a course due to illness or other compelling reasons and to cover you for medical expenses in the UK.

For students taking a "camp" course

Cancellation of your application

79. If we receive cancellation of your course, in writing, more than 28 days before the course starts, you will be responsible for paying just the deposit of £300.00.
80. If you cancel your course less than 28 days before the course starts, or if you fail to cancel, you will be responsible for paying the full fees for your course.

Termination of your course

81. No refunds will be made for early withdrawal from a course.
82. Insurance is not included in our fees. We recommend that you arrange your own insurance to cover you for cancellation or withdrawal from a course due to illness or other compelling reasons and to cover you for medical expenses in the UK.

Refunds

83. Refunds will be made only to the person (such as a parent) or organisation (such as a Studio Cambridge representative) from whom we received the fees. Refunds will normally be made to the original payer's bank account or credit card and will not be made in cash. If payment was made via Flywire, the due funds will be returned through that service.
84. Refunds will not be given for any part of the programme, such as an excursion or activity, missed because of your arrival or departure arrangements or for any other reason.
85. Refunds will not be given if you choose not to use the airport transfer service.
86. All refunds will be made in £ Sterling only.
87. Any bank or other charges which are properly payable by you may be deducted from the amount refunded to you.
88. Any refunds made will be based on the published fees for the length of the course taken and the refund provisions in these Terms and Conditions.

Your agreement to these terms and conditions

89. By signing the application form, you or your parent/guardian agree to:

- inform us of any condition, including allergies, that could affect you or your medical treatment
- provide medical and emergency information accurately
- authorise Studio Cambridge to take reasonable action in the case of a medical emergency
- comply with reasonable instructions from Studio Cambridge staff relating to health, safety and safeguarding
- attend activities organised by the school or arranged by the school through third parties as part of your programme
- provide any additional parental, medical or activity consent required for the student's course; and
- acknowledge that the person signing the application form is responsible for paying all costs properly incurred under these Terms and Conditions.

90. Signing the application form or enrolling online confirms that you have had the opportunity to read & understand these Terms & Conditions. Your contract consists of these Terms & Conditions, your booking confirmation, the applicable Dates & Fees document and any specific written arrangements expressly agreed with you.
