Terms & Conditions

ADULT PROGRAMS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Course Confirmation and Payment

All tuition and fees must be paid in full before you start classes at CISL. Upon receipt of your application and payment, we will send you a letter confirming your acceptance. Payment may be sent by any of the following: international money order, electronic bank transfer (wire transfer), credit card (MasterCard or Visa only). We cannot process your application unless we receive your payment.

Bank Transfers

CISL will provide the school's bank information for wire transfers upon request. Please include the student's name and student ID as part of the bank transfer information. The payment must include all sending and intermediary wire transfer charges. CISL will pay all receiving fees.

Accommodations

A non-refundable accommodation placement fee of $160 is required for all accommodations. A deposit of $250 is required for all residence accommodations and will be applied to the total accommodation cost. If you cancel your accommodations after they have been confirmed, the deposit may not be refundable. Please read the Refund Policy carefully. If you are requesting homestay accommodations, please make flight reservations so that you arrive no later than 21:30.

Course Extension

You can extend your course after you arrive. The additional course fee must be paid before the start of the extension. You can pay the school directly or through your official CISL representative in your country.

Liability

CISL, its staff, and its representatives will not be liable for loss, damage or injury to persons or property however caused, except where liability is expressly imposed beyond exclusion by s t atute .

Media Release

Students agree to allow photos and videos taken during CISL programs to be used for publicity purposes.

Change Fee

A $100 course or accommodation change fee may be charged.

I-20 Form / F-1 Student Visa

CISL is authorized to issue a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20) to qualifying full-time students. The I-20 form is used when applying for a student visa (F-1) and will only be issued for the number of weeks that your tuition is paid and that you are enrolled full-time (18 hours or more per week with a minimum of 4 weeks). You can extend your course at CISL, and a revised I-20 will be issued but all extensions must be approved under USCIS requirements by filing form I-95 and paying relevant fees. The visa must be obtained at the U.S. Embassy in your home country before your departure. If you are denied a student visa, you will receive a refund of all prepaid tuition (minus the $160 application fee or other non-refundable fees).

If you require an I-20 form, you must provide CISL with documents showing that you have enough money to pay for all of your tuition and living expenses while you are studying at CISL, as well as a copy of your passport and your home address. Please send these documents with your application. Financial means can be demonstrated with:

1. Evidence of financial means (e.g. a copy of a recent bank statement) to pay your tuition and living expenses for the duration of your stay; or
2. A letter of sponsorship from your parent or legal guardian accompanied by evidence of their financial means (e.g. a copy of a recent bank statement); or
3. A letter of sponsorship from your company or organization together with evidence of its financial means..

Students taking any 20-lesson per week course and who are requesting an I-20 for a student visa will also need to take either an Afternoon Elective, private lessons, or attend a 2-lesson Study Hall session each week in order to meet the 18-hour per week minimum requirement for the student visa. Students who choose the Study Hall option will have the designation "Plus" on their confirmation (e.g. "Standard Plus"). Failure to adhere to our minimum 85% attendance policy may result in termination of I-20 and dismissal from the school.

For more information about visas and traveling to the United States, please visit: studyinthestates.dhs.gov/students

Airport Transfers

Please send us your flight information as soon as possible. If you are requesting homestay accommodations, please make flight reservations so that you arrive before 21:30.

If you are staying with a host family the arrival airport transfer will cost $120 and you must arrive between 9:00 and 21:30 on the weekend. Your host will meet you at the airport in the baggage claim area holding a sign with your name on it. Please be sure to carry your "Airport Transfer Confirmation" with you so that you have the emergency assistance number to call in case of a problem. If your flight is delayed to after 21:30, you will need to take a taxi or shuttle van to the host's home at your own expense. If your flight arrives Monday–Friday, please contact the school in advance to make arrangements for getting from the airport to your host family's home. For students not staying with a host family (or those arriving late or on weekdays) a private transfer service is available for $160 (one-way).

Medical Insurance

The school does not provide medical insurance. However, we strongly recommend that you purchase medical insurance for travelers to the United States or you ensure that your current policy is valid in the United States. Medical treatment in the United States is very expensive. You are responsible for any medical expenses incurred, so please be sure that you review the terms of your insurance policy, including covered services, deductibles, co-payments, length of coverage, etc., prior to arrival.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Academic Year Program (AYP)

For the Fall 2027 semester enroll no later than April 17th. For the Spring 2028 semester enroll no later than September 5th. Approximate price is $7,600; books and tuition for Grossmont classes not included. Prices are subject to change by the college. This price is based on a 16-week CISL Intensive course (including 12 weeks of EAP) and one semester at a community college. Accommodation is not included in this price. A $750 administration fee will be required.

Pathway Program

The Pathway Program provides students admission to accredited, highly reputable American colleges or universities (often without a TOEFL or IELTS score). A 12-week EAP class is required.

The length of your program will depend on your level of English. See the price list on page 2 for English course prices. College prices and dates are different for each college. A $750 administration fee will be required.

Official Exam Information

For IELTS, it is the student's responsibility to register for the exam with the name exactly as it appears in the passport.

The official IELTS exam is $215–$310. Students must register and pay for this exam directly on the IELTS website at ielts.org. The exam is offered several times per month.
